Pills Fatal to Actress Marilyn Monroe

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A doctor smashed his way into a locked bedroom—and found Marilyn Monroe dead in bed, nude, a telephone clutched in her hand, an empty pill bottle nearby.

It was her psychiatrist who found the body early Sunday. The mysterious death brought a tragic end, at 36, to the troubled life of Norma Jean Baker, the world's most famous blonde as Marilyn Monroe.

She apparently died either late Saturday or early Sunday of an overdose of sleeping pills. The empty bottle had contained 50 Nembutal capsules.

Was it suicide? Had she called someone before she died?

A coroner's investigation team, aided by detectives, is seeking the answers to these questions today. Evidence uncovered so far is conflicting.

Dr. Ralph Greenson, her psychiatrist, said she called him at 5:15 p.m. Saturday, distraught, seeking reassurance. They talked an hour. He told her to take a drive in her car to relax.

It was a ride she never took. Instead, she retired at 8 p.m., in what her housekeeper, Mrs. Eunice Murray, thought to be good spirits.

If she made any calls that evening, they were local calls. Telephone company records disclosed no toll calls from her number.

Mrs. Murray rose at 3 a. m. Sunday in her quarters in the star's Brentwood home — awakened by an uneasy dread she couldn't explain—and found Miss Monroe's light still burning, her door locked, and no answer to her knock. She phoned Dr. Greenson.

He rushed to the home, smashed a bedroom window with a fire-place poker, forced his way in, and told Mrs. Murray: "She appears to be dead."

No notes were found. She was found lying face down, the covers hunched around her shoulders.

The body was taken to a nearby mortuary and then to the county morgue where it remains today, unclaimed.

Hours before she had been one of the world's most famous personalities.

But on her coroner's call sheet, tagged to crypt 33 in the morgue, were these unimpressive statistics: Weight 117 pounds, height 65½ inches, hair blonde and eyes blue.

Next of kin — Gladys Baker, mother. Address unknown.

Her three husbands had little or nothing to say about her death, at least to newsmen.

Joe Dimaggio, the ex-baseball star, flew here Sunday, apparently to be nearby for the funeral. Her first husband, policeman James E. Dougherty, lives in Los Angeles.

Her mother, an inmate of mental institutions for most of her life, was last confined to a home in nearby La Crescenta.

Marilyn, who had shifted for herself since early childhood, was known to have made a will outlining plans for her own burial.

A business associate said that it had not been found yet and funeral arrangements were pending until its discovery expected later today.

Dimaggio hopped on the first plane leaving San Francisco for Los Angeles after hearing of her death via a radio bulletin. He was in seclusion in a Santa Monica hotel.

Though Marilyn divorced him in 1955, the two had remained good friends.

Playwright Arthur Miller, since remarried, declined to make a public statement on the death of his former wife.

Miller became Miss Monroe's third husband in 1956 and they continued on page two Accidents Investigated in This Area

A series of accidents and an altercation were investigated by City Police over the weekend.

Statewide Polio Drive Approved

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A massive campaign to immunize every person in Arkansas against polio was approved Sunday by the Executive Council of the Arkansas Medical Society.

The program will be launched Sept. 30 with the last of the three-dose series coming Dec. 9.

Arkansas, thus, will become the first state in the country to start an immunization program on such a scale. Several large cities, including Dallas and Cincinnati, Ohio, already have administered mass doses of the Sabin oral vaccine, but these were local programs.

The state medical society, along with every county group, will sponsor the program. The Pulaski County Medical Society announced June 30 it would conduct such an operation.

Although there will be no charge for the dosage, persons wishing to, will be able to make a contribution of 25 cents or more to help defray its cost.

The vaccine is taken orally on a lump of sugar, with three drops of the colorless, tasteless fluid on each cube. For infants six weeks old or older, the vaccine is administered through a medicine dropper.

The Sabin vaccine employs three strains of polio and requires three separate administrations. Type I will be given Sept. 30, Type II on Nov. 4 and the final Type III on Dec. 9.

The Sabin vaccine has been extensively tested in several countries, including the United States where seven million persons have been immunized.

It is reported that 80 per cent of a community receives the vaccine, the remaining 20 per cent eventually would develop an immunity because a five, contagious virus is employed.

Dr. Roger Bost of Fort Smith, chairman of the Polio Advisory Subcommittee of the state society, said his group recommended the program after he had observed a similar program at Dallas. Others on the subcommittee are Dr. Thomas E. Townsend of Pine Bluff, Dr. Barney Briggs of Little Rock, Dr. Max Thorn of North Little Rock, Dr. Eli Cary of Arkadelphia, and Dr. Henry Rogers of El Dorado.

Senate Calls in Doctor About Drug Control

By BARRY SCHWEID
WASHINGTON (AP) — The

Senate Judiciary Committee called Dr. Frances O. Kelsey for testimony on President Kennedy's proposed amendments to drug control legislation.

Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said today before the committee went into closed session that he believed there would be no controversy over adding to the bill provisions to tighten regulations over such drugs as thalidomide.

Dr. Kelsey is the Food and Drug Administration medical officer who blocked U.S. marketing of thalidomide, a tranquilizer which some medical men blame for malformation of infants in Europe.

While never sold in the United States, thalidomide was distributed to 1,231 U.S. doctors for possible experimental use.

Kennedy sent to the committee 25 pages of proposed amendments to a measure sponsored by Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn.

Kennedy wrote Eastland asking, among other things, that the government be given additional authority to remove unsafe or ineffectual drugs from the market.

"I am going to lay every one of President Kennedy's amendments before the committee," Eastland said. "It will be up to the committee to decide which of them it wants to write into the bill."

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has asked the Senate Judiciary Committee to restore some of the teeth it yanked from the Kefauver drug bill.

His renewed request for stricter controls comes on the heels of an outcry over the sedative thalidomide, blamed for the malformation of thousands of infants in Europe.

The drug was not sold in the United States but was distributed to 1,231 American doctors for possible experimental use.

The major item in the provisions backed by Kennedy in a letter to committee chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., is greater government power to remove unsafe or ineffectual drugs from the market.

Along with the letter to Eastland went 25 pages of amendments that have the president's backing.

The Kefauver bill had paralleled in many respects proposals made by Kennedy in his consumer message to Congress early this year.

Last spring, the President strongly endorsed the Kefauver bill in a letter to Eastland. The committee modified the measure into what Kefauver says is now "a mere shadow of itself."

Last week at his news conference, Kennedy said the Senate bill, which is still in the hands of the committee, "does not go far enough."

Reports that thalidomide is believed responsible for thousands of malformed births in Europe and the story of how a government medical officer blocked its sale here helped put the spotlight back on the United States' drug laws.

The renewed discussion of drug procedures took this form over Continued on Page Two

Reds Launch New Nuclear Test Series

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP) — The Soviet Union has launched a new nuclear test series with a super-bomb blast which Swedish scientists placed in the 40-megaton range, second only to the 50-megaton blast the Russians set off last October.

The new blast Sunday, apparently touched off at Soviet atomic test grounds in Arctic Siberia, came as no surprise to the West.

Premier Khrushchev had announced his forces would have to resume testing because of the U.S. Pacific tests now being concluded.

The U.S. State Department called the Soviet explosion a "somber episode" but made clear it will not halt U.S. efforts to get a nuclear test ban.

"The urgent problem before the world is not who tests last, but how we can rid the world of nuclear testing once and for all," said the department statement, referring to Soviet statements that they insisted on holding the last round of tests.

U.S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean returned to the Geneva disarmament conference Saturday with new Western compromise proposals for a test ban treaty.

No date has been announced for presentation of the proposals to the conference.

Estimates varied as to the size of the Soviet explosion Sunday believed touched off on the island of Novaya Zemlya about 1,950 miles east of Uppsala.

Uppsala University's Seismological Institute classed it in the range of 40 million tons of TNT and said it occurred at a higher altitude than the Soviet series of 1961.

The Soviet foreign ministry refused to comment on the explosion, which appeared to have launched a new round of Russian military maneuvers in the far north. The Soviet government announced two weeks ago that maneuvers would begin Aug. 5, with the Soviet northern fleet, rocket troops and air force units taking part.

In Japan, only nation to have been hit by an atomic bomb, a government spokesman said the Soviet act "is regrettable for world peace."

It also drew criticism from Dr. Kaoru Yasui, head of the Communist-dominated Japan Council against Atomic and Hydrogen Bombs.

Dr. Ari Ankorian, Soblen's Israeli attorney, said the 61-year-old psychiatrist may be back in Israel by Thursday to begin a new legal battle to remain there.

Soblen, convicted of spying for the Russians during World War II, jumped $100,000 bail and fled from the United States for Israel last June. Israel expelled him July 1 and put him with a U.S. Marshal on a plane of the government-owned El Al Airlines for the United States.

Soblen stabbed himself in the stomach and slashed a wrist and was taken off the plane at London. He has been battling ever since to escape completing the flight. Soblen is in London's Brixton Prison.

British Home Secretary Henry Brooks has ordered El Al to complete Soblen's trip to the United States before Wednesday night. But Israel's cabinet reaffirmed Sunday its stand that if Soblen is placed aboard an El Al plane, he will be flown to Israel.

Scholarships to the University

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Scholarships have been granted to 12 students of the University of Arkansas School of Medicine for the 1962-63 school year, Dr. Winston K. Shorey, Dean of the school, announced today.

One grant, of $1,000, went to Jack C. Wilson, a senior from Little Rock. The scholarship is sponsored by the Charles Pfizer and Co. Laboratories of New York.

Twelve other $500 awards were made available by the Avalon Foundation of New York. Recipients include Kelsey Caplinger of Fordyce, Dan W. Canada of Marked Tree, James B. Weedman of El Dorado, Jerry Carter of Little Rock, John D. Ginger of Pine Bluff, Thomas S. Harris of Stamps, Ralph H. Jennings of Benton, Norton A. Pope of Camden, Don C. McLarey of Okay, Kent C. Westbrook of Clarksville, Roy G. Girk-in of Searcy, and Sue Ross of Gurdon.

Official results of the race have not been tabulated yet.

Willis said Saturday he was withdrawing partially because of the expense of having second primary runoffs in 41 of the state's 75 counties where there are no local races contested.

He also said he was withdrawing because he lacked sufficient funds to make a strong second primary race against Bryant and that he felt the heavy vote given his opponent was a vote of confidence.

Cattlett said the ballot with the names of Bryant and Willis would be certified out to the counties today for a statewide primary.

Cattlett said he has consulted with Tom Harper of Fort Smith, chairman of the state committee, and with Harry Combs, assistant secretary. The three, he said had come to the conclusion that the status are mandatory and that the two names "shall be" on the ballot in a runoff.

Cattlett said, "The statutes say that if a man does not receive a majority of the votes in the preferential primary, the two top names 'shall' go on the runoff ballot. And the laws further say that if a man is not elected or nominated in a preferential primary, he does not receive a majority."

Cattlett said the courts had not ruled on whether a candidate may withdraw from a runoff. He said the heads of the committee felt, however, the court might make it mandatory for both names to go on the ballot since the word "shall" was used.

Cattlett said, "I understand a similar case came up in Hot Springs last week in the race for constable and that the county committee there was advised informally by the attorney general's office that the name of the number two man would be on the ballot."

Willis was not available for comment today.

Saturday, Bryant had said of Willis' decision, he felt that a second primary would be of little value because of the expense and the vote of confidence he (Bryant) received last Tuesday.

Soblen May Be Returned to Israeli

LONDON (AP)—The conviction grew today that runaway Russian spy Dr. Robert Soblen will be returned to Israel this week to continue his fight to escape a life sentence in a U.S. prison.

Dr. Ari Ankorian, Soblen's Israeli attorney, said the 61-year-old psychiatrist may be back in Israel by Thursday to begin a new legal battle to remain there.

Law Plain on Issue, Rules Demo Group

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Leon Catlett, secretary of the state Democratic Central Committee, said today Arkansas will have a statewide primary in the race for secretary of state even though Milton Willis of Van Buren withdrew Saturday.

Willis of Van Buren was second in the first primary last Tuesday, polling some 92,000 votes to 132,000 for Kelly Bryant of Hope, leader in the race. Avon Phillips placed third in the race with some 65,000 votes and Carroll Durham fourth with some 50,000.

Official results of the race have not been tabulated yet.

Willis said Saturday he was withdrawing partially because of the expense of having second primary runoffs in 41 of the state's 75 counties where there are no local races contested.

Tragedy Has Taken Many Actresses

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It was 25 years ago that Jean Harlow—an other blonde who, like Marilyn Monroe, was the movie sex symbol of her generation—met an untimely death.

Miss Harlow, the finished product of private schools and a cloistered life, was only 26 when she died of uremic poisoning in June 1937. Miss Monroe, 36, an unwanted child shuttled through a dozen foster homes, was found dead in her bed Sunday, apparently the victim of an overdose of sleeping pills.

Miss Monroe and Miss Harlow, separated by nearly 30 years, both suffered from the pressures of being publicized as sex goddesses. Neither could find happiness in the form of a lasting marriage. Each was married three times, and each marriage ended unhappily.

Miss Harlow's second husband, director Paul Bern, shot himself to death 10 weeks after they were wed.

Wife Sees Marriage Crashing as Husband Takes a Mistress

By HELEN WORDER ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I am desolated; my husband whom I adore, is keeping another woman. This came to light only yesterday when, in going over monthly bills, I noticed a number of charges on a specialty shop account which I have not used in some time. The store's bookkeeper was obviously embarrassed, said a new assistant had mailed the bills and this one should have been sent to my husband's office. That, of course, only made matters worse.

By the time my husband got home, I had been driven half-crazy and looked a mess; hair hanging in wisps, eyes red-rimmed from crying and swollen almost shut, dress rumpled (I'd been lying on the couch trying to forget). The house was in the same condition, it being the maid's day off and me, in hysterics. My husband looked his disgust. This was all I needed.

"Who is the other woman?" I screamed, waving the specialty shop bill at him. Instead of answering, he reached for his hat and left. That's the last I saw of him and, I suppose, is the last of our marriage. I feel like killing myself. —Devastated and Desolated Wife

Dear Devastated: Yours is a problem as old as the hills and as universal. I ran across a similar situation in Paris, last spring. It involved a dear friend. My husband and I were on our way to Montreux, that incredibly beautiful resort on Lake Geneva, in Switzerland. The purpose of our visit being to take the Niehans cellular therapy treatment.

For years I had been talking of looking up Dr. Paul Niehans, with the idea of writing an article about his theories which, in their way, were as revolutionary as Einstein's on relativity. But it took a heart condition of my husband's and a luncheon with Lillian Gish to give us the necessary shove. Lillian and her sister, Dorothy, are living testimonials of the efficacy of cellular therapy.

So, after making arrangements for the Dorothy Dix letters to follow me by air-mail, we boarded a Pan American Jet for Paris. A week there, then on to Montreux. I love Paris, have lived in practically every Quarter and, as a result accumulated many friends who make it their permanent home—among them, the ethereal blonde-haired Polish wife of a great French surgeon. I knew her well several years ago and so, quite naturally, she was one of the first people I looked up. By good fortune, she was in the city so I made a date for the following afternoon. During our brief telephone conversation I was struck by a different quality in her voice—once buoyant and gay, now leaden and depressed. Next day she was waiting for me at the head of the stairs. I have never seen such a change in a human being. Where she had been young, vibrant and beautiful, she was now prematurely old, gray and positively homely. "My dear, you must have been desperately ill," I exclaimed. "Why didn't you let me know?"

She sighed and led the way to her personal sitting room. "It's a sickness of the soul, not the body." And as she spoke, the expression of her face was dreadful to see. "My husband, the one whom I adore above all else in this world, has taken himself a mistress. I would kill myself, if it were not for our boy."

I told her what I am telling you now, Dear Devastated. Revise your thinking. Man is polygamous, woman monogamous. True, there are exceptions, but this rule holds for the majority. If you want your marriage to survive, cut the histrionics. Prove how mistaken your husband is by being more alluring and a better sport than the other woman. Make him need you, rather than her. It can be done, provided the wife is broad-minded enough to rise above jealousy and the desire for revenge which, though natural, will inevitably destroy her marriage, if she gives way to it.

'Hands Off' Says Faubus of Politics

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus, as he has in the past, probably will make himself "unavailable" to local candidates prior to the Aug. 14 Democratic second primary.

That's what Faubus said Saturday. The governor said he and his wife may take in the World's Fair at Seattle, but wherever they go, he wants to stay out of runoff fights.

With the withdrawal of Milton J. Willis Saturday as candidate for secretary of state, there will be no state runoffs.

Faubus said he doesn't think it is "smart politics" to enter sides in local races.

"I am out of touch until after Aug. 14," he said.

3 Die in One Wreck, State Total 21

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three elderly Springdale residents died Sunday when their pickup truck was sideswiped on a steep hill and struck a bridge abutment near Fayetteville on U.S. Highway 71.

The victims were James Newman, 79, and his 69-year-old wife, and Mrs. Nannie E. Lewis, about 80.

State Police said the trailer of a flatbed truck driven by Marcus L. Howard, 37, of West Fork, sideswiped the Newman truck as it approached the bridge, knocking it out of control. It then rammed the bridge abutment full force, killing both women instantly. Newman later died at a hospital in Fayetteville.

Howard and a passenger in his truck escaped injury. The deaths brought to 21 the number of persons dying violently in Arkansas during the week ended last midnight.

In other weekend accidents: Two Memphis musicians, Charles R. Eldred, 19, and Kenneth W. Earwood, 20, members of the Ace Cannon Band, were killed instantly Sunday when their car missed a curve north of Boythville and struck a ditch.

Stanley Brinsfield, 22, of Newport, drowned in the Black River four miles northwest of Newport Sunday. Dragging operations for the body began today.

Deborah Ruth Tygart, 8, and Waymond Brown, 9, both of the Old Austin community near Cabot, drowned Saturday in a farm pond close to their homes, when a boat in which they were playing sank. Deborah was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tygart and young Brown was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Brown.

Five-year-old Brenda Kay Williams was struck and fatally injured by a pickup truck while crossing a highway in front of her home 17 miles west of El Dorado Sunday.

The child had just returned from church with her mother and sister when she darted into the path of a truck driven by Jesse P. Hennessy, 46, of Magnolia, Sheriff O. E. Bishop said.

Susie Hays, 16, of the Black Oak community near Marked Tree, drowned Sunday while wading in the Little River at Marked Tree. Her death came just over a year after her 11-year-old brother, Michael, drowned in the St. Francis River south of Marked Tree.

Bernard B. Buie, 49, of Haskell, Ark., an employee of the State Hospital's unit at Benton, was dead on arrival at a Hot Springs Hospital Sunday after his car struck a tree along side U.S. Highway 70 east of Hot Springs.

Officers said Buie's car traveled several hundred feet on the shoulder before slamming into the tree. An 18-year-old Louan Negro, Johnny Lee Austin, drowned Sunday in a pond near his home, while swimming with six other Negroes.

Austin's body was recovered in 10 feet of water after an hour's search.

During the week, 13 persons died in traffic accidents, six drowned and one each died by stabbing and shooting.

Walnut Ridge Captures Title

WALNUT RIDGE, Ark. (AP) — Walnut Ridge brushed off El Dorado 12-7 Sunday to win its second straight state American Legion baseball title.

The victory qualifies Walnut Ridge for a shot at the regional crown at Helena Aug. 16.

Walnut Ridge, unhampered in going 4-0 in the state meet, matched its record of a year ago when the title was won with equal ease.

El Dorado, which represented the loser's bracket in the double-elimination tournament, took advantage of loose Walnut Ridge fielding in the ninth to score four runs, but to no avail.

Mexico Hopes to Capture Tennis Title

MEXICO CITY (AP)—"We've got it now—I'm sure Osuna will wrap it up for us."

Captain Francisco Contreras thus predicted a quick and complete victory for his Mexicans over the shell-shocked United States today in the semifinals of the American zone Davis Cup tennis competition.

Leading 2-1 after a five-set doubles triumph Sunday at the Chapultepec Sports Center, Mexico sent its No. 1 player, Rafael Osuna against America's Jon Douglas in the first of the final two singles matches.

The Mexicans needed only one more victory to erase the United States from the Davis Cup picture the first time it has ever happened in Uncle Sam's own zone—and the odds were 10-1 that Osuna will deliver the knockout blow in the opening contest.

This would make a mere formality of the other match in which Chuck McKinley, the 21-year-old from St. Ann, Mo., rules a prohibitive choice over Antonio Palafox of Mexico.

Osuna and Palafox gave the Mexicans their one-point lead Sunday when they scored a 6-hour, rain-interrupted doubles victory over McKinley and Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., 4-6, 10-12, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Roberts Should Get Comeback of Year Title

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

If Robin Roberts doesn't win the comeback of the year award, there is something wrong with the voting system.

The 35-year-old right-hander has rebounded from a 5.85 earned run average with the Phillies (1-10) in 1961 to a 2.48 ERA and a 7-4 record with the Baltimore Orioles.

Victory No. 7 Sunday boosted his career total to 241.

Roberts threw a five-hitter at Los Angeles and won 7-2 as the Orioles, in fourth place, moved within 3½ games of the slumping Angels.

The leading New York Yankees were beaten by Chicago 3-2 in 13 innings on a single by Mike Hershberger. The Yanks' margin was cut to five games because Minnesota split two with Detroit.

The second-place Twins won their fifth straight 8-3 with six runs in the 11th inning of the opener, then bowed to the Tigers 5-2 in the second game.

The pitching-poor Kansas City A's hit the jackpot with two young fellows who gave them their first doubleheader sweep since April 22. Cleveland was the victim 3-2 and 5-2. Dan Pfister pitched the first game, striking out 10 although he needed relief help in the ninth. Orlando Pena, formerly with Cincinnati but just recently purchased from Toronto of the International League, made a successful American League debut with a six-hitter in the second game.

Tom Cheney shut out Boston with four hits in a 2-0 Washington victory in the first game but the Red Sox took the second 5-4 in 11 innings on a wild throw by third baseman Bob Johnson.

In the National League, Los Angeles went 14 innings to top the Chicago Cubs in the first game 4-3, but dropped the second 4-2 to Don Cardwell's three-hitter. San Francisco edged Pittsburgh 2-1 and Milwaukee thumped the Phillies 8-1 behind Warren Spahn.

The New York Mets ran their victory streak to three by winning the first from Cincinnati 5-2 before succumbing to the Reds 6-3. Houston rallied to beat St. Louis 7-4 in the opener and the Cards took the second, also 7-4.

A home run by Albie Pearson, leading off in the first, and a run-scoring single by Lee Thomas in the fourth produced the only Angel runs off Roberts. Eli Grba, first of five Los Angeles pitchers, was the loser.

The White Sox tripped the Yanks on a combination of Juan Pizarro's single, an error by Jack Reed and Hershberger's single. Pizarro was the winner over Jim Coates.

The Twins' big 11th inning in the first game at Detroit was triggered by Len Green's bouncing single that broke a 2-2 tie. Detroit jumped off to a 2-0 lead in the first of the second game on Dick McAuliffe's homer and added three more in the second to win for rookie Howie Koplitz.

Monticello Wins Swimming Meet

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Monticello won 299 points, won the sweepstakes award in the AAU Junior Olympics swim meet at Creekmore swimming pool Saturday.

The Little Rock Boys Club was second in the sweepstakes with 279 points.

Swimmers from the club also won in the girl's division with 211 points. The Little Rock YWCA had 170 points and the Fort Smith Girl's Club, 133.

Monticello won the boy's division with 173 points, followed by El Dorado with 132 and Warren with 113. There were no records broken.

Musial, Spahn Haven't Heard About Age

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

It's obvious Warren Spahn and Stan Musial haven't heard. You know, the bit about them being too old for this sort of thing.

Neither of those sprightly 41-year-old players show any signs of packing it in though.

Spahn, Milwaukee's great lefty, scattered six hits Sunday in gaining the 320th victory of his career, an 8-1 verdict over Philadelphia. It evened his season record at 11-11 and reduced his earned run average to 2.93.

Meanwhile Musial rapped out a double and a single, driving in two runs as St. Louis split a pair with Houston, the Cards losing the first 7-4 and winning the second by the same score. With those two hits, Musial became only the third player in history to pass the 3,500 mark—he now has 3,501—and pushed his National League-leading batting average to .357.

The Los Angeles Dodgers lost a half game off their first-place margin when they split with the Cubs and San Francisco: edged Pittsburgh 2-1. The Dodgers outlasted the Cubs 4-3 in 14 innings in the first game, but lost the nightcap 4-2 and now lead by 4½ games.

Cincinnati also split with the New York Mets, losing the first 5-2 and winning the second 6-3.

In the American League, Chicago edged the New York Yankees 3-2 in 13 innings, trimming a half game off the Yanks' lead. Second-place Minnesota crept to within five games by splitting a pair with Detroit, winning the first 8-3 in 11 innings and losing the second 5-2.

Baltimore defeated Los Angeles 7-2, and Kansas City swept a pair from Cleveland, 3-2 and 5-2. Washington and Boston divided, the Senators taking the first 2-0 and the Red Sox the nightcap 5-4 in 11 innings.

Spahn missed a shutout Sunday only because of Del Crandall's passed ball in the sixth. He got all the support he needed from Joe Adcock, who drove in five runs with a pair of homers. Eddie Mathews also homered.

Musial's two hits allowed him to join Tris Speaker and Ty Cobb as the only men ever to pass 3,500. He needs only 14 more to tie Speaker for second at 3,515.

Paul Toth spaced seven hits and got the benefit to a five-run Cardinal ninth in winning the nightcap, his first major league start. Houston also came up with a five-run ninth in coming from behind for the opening decision.

Tommy Davis singled in the tying run in the eighth and won the first game for the Dodgers with another run-producing single, his fourth hit of the game, in the 14th. Larry Sherry (6-2) got credit for the victory after seven innings of shutout relief work.

The Cubs won the second on the three-hit pitching of Don Cardwell. Cardwell (5-11), who hadn't won in a month and a half, had a no-hitter through 5-1-3 innings. Billy O'Dell (13-10) pitched a five-hitter and singled in the winning run in San Francisco's victory over Pittsburgh and Bob Friend (12-11).

Al Jackson threw a five-hitter while Rick Herrscher hit a three-run homer and Charlie Neal a solo job as the Mets beat Cincinnati in the opener. The defending league champions salvaged the nightcap as Gordie Coleman hit his 22nd homer and Frank Robinson his 21st.

Jaipur's Claim Is Now Tighter

By ORLO ROBERTSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

Jaipur's claim to the 3-year-old thoroughbred championship was a little tighter today and he could wrap it up with a victory in the ancient Travers on Aug. 18 at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

The George D. Widener colt, winner of the Belmont Stakes, Jersey Derby (by disqualification), Choice, Gotham and Withers, solidified his position without stepping a foot on a track last Saturday.

It came about when Ridan, the odds-on-choice off an easy victory in the recent Arlington Classic, was beaten a length by Black Sheep in the $116,250 American Derby at Chicago's Arlington Park. Ridan had been considered Jaipur's only serious rival for the division championship. Last Wednesday, Jaipur won the Choice Stakes at Monmouth.

The $75,000-added Travers, a 1¼-mile test first run in 1864, could well be the race of the year for 3-year-olds. In addition to Jaipur and Ridan, Kentucky Derby winner Decidedly and Preakness winner Greek Money are on the grounds and eligible. Cicada, the 3-year-old filly queen, also is pointing for the race.

Carry Back improved his chances of winning the handicap division title by toting 130 pounds.

Faustine Muzaga from Tanganyika made a billfold. This was the first of such workshops he had witnessed.

Osceola Dominates Semi-pro Play

OSCEOLA, Ark. (AP) — The Osceola Indians continued their domination of the state semi-pro tournament, downing North Little Rock 5-4 Sunday for a second straight championship.

Osceola gained the right to represent Arkansas in the National Baseball Congress Tournament to be held at Wichita, Kan., later this month.

Last year, Osceola placed seventh in the national tournament and was voted the most popular team at the meet.

North Little Rock defeated Black Rock 13-2 earlier in the day to gain the finals.

Osceola was paced by the four-hit pitching of Terry Everett of Paragould in winning the crown for the second time in a row.

Sickness, death and crime all increase during periods of high humidity due, say the experts, to the weariness and tension that accompany discomfort.

Thought For The Day

There is a sort of harmless flares, frequently to be met with in company, who deal much in the marvelous. Their usual intention is to please and entertain; but as men are most delighted with what they conceive to be truth, these people mistake the means of pleasing, and incur universal blame. Hume said it.
